ORDER:

Whereas in C.C.No. 22/2001, the Special Judge in Anti Corruption Bureau Cases cum Additional District Judge, Visakhapatnam in the reference 2nd read above has pronounced the judgement and acquitted the Accused Officer Sri P.Narasaiah, formerly Special Officer, Mandal Praja Parishad, Maredumilli-cum-Project Horticulture Officer, ITDA, Rampachodavaram, East Godavari district (Now Assistant Director of Horticulture retired) from the criminal charges leveled against him.

2. After examining the matter, Government has decided to proceed departmentally and in the reference 3rd read above, the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau was requested to furnish draft articles of charges against Sri P.Narasaiah, formerly Special Officer, Mandal Praja Parishad, Maredumilli-cum-Project Horticulture Officer, ITDA, Rampachodavaram, East Godavari district (Assistant Director of Horticulture retired).

3. In the reference 4th read above, Sri P.Narasaiah, Assistant Director of Horticulture (Retired) has submitted a representation, wherein he has requested that the court of the III Additional District & Session Judge-cum-Special Judge for Anti Corruption Bureau cases, Visakhapatnam has pronounced judgement in his favour and requested to drop further action in the matter.

4. Government, after careful examination of the matter, observe that the Accused Officer Sri P.Narasaiah has only approved the note of Mandal Parishad Development Officer for purchase of stationery worth about Rs.1.50 lakhs as against the proposal for Rs. 1.75 lakhs and the rest of the formalities regarding calling for the tenders and its approval have been done without the notice of the Accused Officer. The Mandal Parishad Development Officer has purchased the stationery at higher rate and the trial court also found him not guilty of the charges, as such he was acquitted in the case and the Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau also informed that it is not a fit case to prefer an appeal and there is no misappropriation of the Government money. Accordingly, Government hereby order to drop further action against Sri P.Narasaiah, Asst. Director of Horticulture (Retired).
